THE IMPENDING WAR.

Indications that war will soon break out are increasing. The entry of the Prussians into Holstein is regarded by some as the commencement of the war.

The New Prussian cabinet asserts Austria regards such entry as a breach of the Convention, and the forcible occupation of the Schleswig territory.

The Duke de Gastein had gone to Paris, and his mission said to be a conference with Count Mottoroff, and an audience with Emperor of Austria.

Mottoroff is stated to have positively maintained the grounds of the Austrian reply to a Prussian cabinet courier reached Vienna.

Count Bismarck had issued an important despatch to the Prussian representatives in London, in one passage saying:

"All our information agrees that a determination to make war by Austria is finally settled in Vienna. On the other hand Prussia has been most conciliatory and anxious to peace, but corresponding feeling no longer exists at Vienna. Not only was manifested an entire absence of all readiness to enter into confidential negotiations, but the expression of industrial statements and counsils of the Emperor have been reported to the King."

The Emperor's sources, which leave no doubt that the Imperial Ministers desire war, and are probably in hope of success, have given rise to the present crisis, and the removal by means of a Congress of the further taken care to render impossible the attitude she has assumed."

The London Times says:

Such a despatch as the above has not often been issued by a European minister. The Prussian statesman seems to think courtesy necessary in his communications with Austria. At the same time, the Prussian statesman seems to think courtesy necessary in his communications with Austria.

The London Times says:

Florence telegraphs say that Italy will commence hostilities, as war is declared in Germany.

A decree was issued at Florence on the 7th calling out for service the second categories of classes of 1842, 1843 and 1845.

The Paris Constitutional says the position of France has not been changed by recent events. She maintains entire independence and would only take an active part of event or imperative circumstances should render it her duty for the defence of the national honor or interests.

The text of the Austrian reply to the invitation to the representations already made and expresses surprise that the Prussian government was not invited to conference.

BRITAIN.

In the House of Commons on the 7th, on going into committee on the reform bill Lord Stanley attempted a surprise, by moving that the clause reducing the county franchise to 200 should be rejected.

After a debate in which Messrs. Bright and Gladstone strongly denounced the evasive tactics of the opposition, the motion was rejected by a vote of 287 to 260—government majority 27.

Mr. Walpole then moved an amendment reducing the county franchise to 10 instead of 14 pounds rental. This was defeated by a vote of 237 to 283—a joint majority of 14.

These victories were received with great cheering. The persistent attempt to make opposition to defeat the bill by indirect attacks were loudly denounced by the Liberal journals, which contended that in a fair reform bill conservatives have no chance.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS ON THE 8TH, the reform bill was taken up, but the opposition stalled it off by numerous speeches on various unimportant topics.

The favorable state of affairs, the large gold arrivals from America, and the consequent certainty of an early reduction of the rate of discount gave increased firmness to the funds and consols were advancing. The discount demand continued rather active, with the bank rates at 10 per cent, but first-class paper was taken at 9 per cent in the open market.

Measures are in progress for the re-establishment of the consolidated bank.

Hope is also entertained of the partial resuscitation of "Agra & Madras Bank" the suspension of which created a painful sensation, and the instances of ruin caused by it are said to exceed in number and severity those of any single calamity of the century.

The break down of the bank is attributed to the persistent attacks of speculators in shares whose proceedings are loudly denounced by the press, and being taken on the stock exchange to check the operations of the bank, whose proceedings are calculated to overthrow any band against which they may be directed.

The official statement of Overend & Gurney's affairs, show that little prospect of their share holders getting back much of their share and a half of paid up capital. The direct liabilities are nearly fourteen and a half millions sterling, exclusive of eight millions eight hundred thousand pounds of contingent liabilities on bills in the hands of customers.

FRANCE.

The weekly returns of the Bank of France show a further large increase of thirty-nine and a quarter million francs.

The Bourne, on the 9th, was quiet and steady at 62 1/2.

SPAIN.

The governments of Spain and Portugal have agreed to act in common for the defense of their neutrality in case of a European war.

HOLLAND.

The cholera continues its ravages in Holland. The latest weekly returns of Rotterdam shows 85 cases, 65 of which proved fatal.

THE PRINCIPALITIES.

There had been rumors that Turkish troops had crossed the Danube and come in collision with the Roumanians, that reinforcements had left Bucharest, and that the Hospodar would take command, but they lack confirmation.

It is asserted, however, that energetic measures are progressing in the Principalities, and that the Hospodar has assumed command of 30,000 men.

CHINA.

Shanghai, 7th. The Imperial troops have again been victorious over the rebels in the North.

Arrangements are making in Japan of most favorable character to commerce.

Continental politics remain unchanged.

In the Diet Prussia repudiated the insinuation that she had any intention to annex the Duchies by force, and she will peacefully settle the question by a German Parliament as the Diet was incompetent to deal with the subject.

The rumored imminent departure of the Austrian Minister is contradicted.

It is reported that the Emperor of Austria was to start on the 9th for the headquarters of the army North.

The Austrian considers it certain that M. Rouher will be authorized to make known the Emperor's resolution concerning the crisis.

The same journal contradicts the report that France is making military preparation.

The Italian Chamber of Deputies had almost unanimously adopted the bills for the suppression of foreign banks.

A warrant was issued Friday afternoon by Judge Lowell of the U. S. District Court, on application of the Spanish Vice Consul, to detain the steamer Cherokee on the allegation that she was intended for a Chilean privateer.

Before the warrant could be served, the Cherokee sailed from this port.

New York, June 18—Midnight.

Two cases of cholera, neither fatal, were reported to-day in this city, one by Monroe street and the other by Wyler street.

At quarantine there were two more deaths from cholera to-day, and one new case remaining on the hospital ship Valerona.

It is claimed in New York that a process has been discovered for making gas from petroleum, and that it can be economically applied to lighting and heating purposes. Experiments will soon be made to test the practicability of its being brought into general use.

THIRTY-NINTH CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, June 18.

Senate.

Mr. Scalesbury made a personal explanation concerning a paragraph in the New York Tribune about the Rousseau and General difficulty. He had never assaulted anybody, nor advised anybody to assault another. The author of the statement was a twelfth hand.

The bill relative to the Pacific Railroad was considered, but no action taken.

A bill was reported to regulate the occupation of the mineral lands of the United States.

The House joint resolution, requesting the President to transmit the several States for ratification the recent proposed amendment to the constitution was passed.

The Senate then went into executive session.

House.

Mr. Stevens introduced the following article, as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States:

Congress shall have power to lay an export duty or tax on cotton exported from the United States.

Under the operation of the previous question, vote was reached, and it was rejected, 50 to 41.

Mr. Bingham offered a resolution, requesting the President to transmit the proposed amendment to the constitution forthwith to the several executives of the States—which was passed.

Mr. Anson offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Whereas, It is alleged that peaceable citizens of the United States, engaged in lawful business, have been arrested, and are held as prisoners of war by the British in Ireland, therefore,

Resolved, That the President be requested to inform the House what steps have been taken to protect such persons in their rights as citizens of the United States.

Mr. Garfield asked the unanimous consent of the House to offer the following resolution:

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

Another rain storm prevailed here on Sunday night, and was renewed yesterday afternoon with squalls from the South. The amount of wet weather continues to be sufficient, and in some respects is inconveniently large for the farmers.

DELEGATES AT LARGE. At a meeting held in City Hall yesterday afternoon of the delegates chosen by the Union Ward Caucus Saturday evening, Hon. A. G. Wakefield and Hollis Bowman, Esq., were elected delegates at large.

DELEGATES. Hampden Buxford, Orrington, Ellsworth and Charleston have elected delegates for Chamberlain, Orono has elected delegates for Mr. Spring, Belgrade has elected delegates for Chamberlain; Monmouth, Cape Elizabeth, Saco and Biddeford for Spring.

An unusually large amount of lumber is now sold and ready for shipment from this port. On the other hand, vessels are every scarce, and freights range from $5.00 to $6.50 over the Shoals; and from $3.00 to $3.50 to Boston. From two to three hundred vessels could readily obtain freight with dispatch.

EXHIBITION OF PAINTINGS. The attention of our readers is invited to a fine collection of oil paintings, now on exhibition at Concert Hall, Noromberg building. These paintings have been carefully selected in France and Belgium, and imported during the past year. The gallery will be open to-day from 8 o'clock a. m., until 6 p. m., and from 8 to 9.30 this evening—free to visitors. The sale is announced for Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week.

PORTLAND AND MACHIAS. The splendid steamer City of Richmond now makes two trips per week between Portland and Machias and intermediate landings, as will be seen by advertisement. She leaves Portland on Tuesday and Friday evenings at eleven o'clock, or on arrival of express train from Boston, and leaves Machiasport Monday and Thursday mornings at 6 o'clock, and connects both ways with steamer Katakadin at Rockland.

The bridge reported by the Machias Republican as having been partially burned, as stated in our paper of yesterday, was in Cherryfield, not Springfield as the types made us say.

WITHDRAWAL OF GEN'L SHEPLEY. A despatch received in this city on Saturday evening from Gen'l George F. Shepley announces that he is not a candidate for the Union nomination for Governor, but that he heartily supports Gen'l Chamberlain for that office.

The Masons of Machias will hold a grand fair and dinner on the 4th of July; the proceeds to be devoted towards the erection of a Masonic Hall. The Order lost their hall in the last fire.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT. The Houlton Times says that on Wednesday last a son of Levi Betts of that town, while at work in a carding machine, was caught by the arm in the picker, and before he could be extricated, the left arm of the poor boy was completely crushed, and the flesh almost entirely stripped from the shoulder to the wrist. His head was also badly fractured. The arm was amputated. No hope of his recovery is entertained.

The Bath Times learns that on Tuesday, John C. Swanton, Esq., of that city, while at work at his house, fell and broke his left arm, near the wrist.

The Kennebec Journal says that twenty-four new brick stores will soon be finished in the burnt district.

"The Organ of the Sons of Temperance" is a neat though small monthly paper, just started at Gardiner by the Board of Trustees of the Lecture and Tract Fund of the Grand Division, at 25 cents a year.

The Biddeford Journal says a boy about six years of age and son of Joseph Place, was drowned on Wednesday by falling into the canal on Gooch Island.

One concern in Saco and Biddeford manufactures $300,000 worth of lumber a year.

Howard Knox of Sanford was drowned in the river near that place on the 9th inst.

H. S. Hager, Esq., of Richmond, has re-commenced work on a large ship, upon which work had been suspended for a year past.

The extensive manufacturing shop of Walter Corey's furniture establishment in Portland, was damaged by fire to the amount of $5000 or $6000 on Saturday evening last. The loss is covered by insurance. An extensive conflagration was prevented only by great exertions of the steamers.

SAD CASUALTY. A lad named John Holmwood, Jr., aged about eleven years, whose parents reside in York street, while passing through a stable in the vicinity of the house, Sunday noon was kicked by a horse, the blow striking his jugular vein, and instantly killed.—Press.

On Thursday last Mr. Wm. H. Fuller had his arm broken, and was otherwise injured by a fall-up at the trotting park.

Mr. A. W. Wakefield fell from a staging on the new store of Pollard & Ward, severely lacerating his thigh, and laying the cords bare.

Mr. Alonso Herrin had his foot badly injured at the Excelsior Factory.—Clarion.

Nemesis.

The London Punch, rhyming upon the war cloud, says:

There's a funeral shadow lying
 Alas! over our dear native
 Drifts and clouds of sorrow fly;
 Fires and fates on every side.
 Over Germany they darken,
 Over Italy they glow;
 See! the English flag is heaving
 For the trumpet of the doom.

What is it, this black terror?
 Is it the cloud of war?
 By some pernicious error
 Drawn near, from some far?
 No, 'tis a deeper darkening
 Than of olden days can be;
 And the voice for which we hear
 Thrills with more than battle's dread.

The Nemesis that speaks
 In the thunder of these clouds—
 The Nemesis that wreathes
 Kings' wrongs on guileless crowds—
 The Nemesis that proclaims
 Bloody crime from evil seed—
 The Nemesis, not spurning
 The door of ill-deed!

So England's nation reels,
 In the view of God's less light;
 The well-wishing voices
 Where none are in the right;
 See not Freedom's eagle spring
 From the blood that shall be shed;
 Only Nations slow winging
 Over her dark track, step with dead!

AN OLD "ATTACHMENT." The following was told a good while ago, of an Alabama shorif.

Court was in session, and amid the multiplicity of business which crowded upon him at term time, he stopped at the door of a beautiful widow, on the sunny side of thirty, who by the way, had often bestowed mellowing glances on the shorif. He was admitted, and the widow appeared, only when the shorif, with the air of a man who has visited, and who is not to be again, of her visitor, occurred, set off to greater advantage than usual, the captivating charms of the widow M.— Her cheeks bore the beautiful blushed tints of the apple blossom, her lips reflected the rose buds, upon which the morning dew yet lingered, and her eyes were like quivers of Cupid, and the glances of love and tenderness, which they were filled, resembled arrows which only wanted a quiver (the pun) to do full execution. After a few common remarks, "Madam, said the matter-of-fact shorif, 'I have an attachment for you.'

A deeper blush than usual mantled the cheeks of the fair widow, while the glances of her hawk eyes were centered upon her beautiful form, which, half concealed by flowing drapery, paled the floor. "Sir, the attachment is reciprocal." For some time the shorif maintained an astonished silence, and at length said:

"Madam will you proceed to court?" "Proceed to court," replied the lady with a merry laugh, then shaking her head she said, "No, sir, I do not intend to go, I will not take advantage of license, I am granted for my sex, and, therefore, I prefer that you should proceed to court."

"But, Madam, the Justice is waiting." "Let him wait," I am not disposed to hurry matters in so unbecoming a manner; and besides, sir, when the ceremony is performed I wish you to understand that I greatly prefer a minister to a justice of the peace."

A light dawned on the shorif's brain. "Madam, said he, rising from his chair with solemn dignity, there is a great mistake here; my language has been misunderstood; the attachment of which I speak was issued from the Court of Sessions, and commands me to bring you instantly before me to answer a contempt of court, in disobeying a subpoena in the case of Smith vs. Jones."

The lady's reply is not reported.
